Welcome and Introductions	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Colin Binkley welcomed committee members and expressed appreciation for coming. He was the meeting facilitator.
Old Business	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Nothing to Report
New Business	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Dealers are not thinking about hiring new students until it's too late. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Colin visited career centers and high schools to be on advisory committees. • We need to communicate with each other to see if new employees are needed in the business. • Students need to be well rounded individuals. They need to be able to speak to the customers, listen, document work properly, and be competent. • Dealers and owners need to come to Penta to talk to their students. • Our local dealers are not representing Owens at our advisory committee meetings. • Students have a head start through dual enrollment. • Due to the 8 week program, someone will always be in the shops. • Colin would like to attend a dealers meeting. Is there one? • Dealers do not have meetings anymore. Everything is web or conference calls. Dealers don't know each other anymore. • Networking is missing between the dealers. • The advisory committee advised Colin to get with Rick Martinez and Steve Archer. • GM is doing away with the telecommunication center in January. • The advisory committee thought it would be a good idea to create a "job bank" of students. • Dealers could possibly share the students. Rotate through the dealerships.
