FACULTY/STAFF

STUDENT CONDUCT BOARD APPLICATION

Office of Student Conduct and Community Standards

Description:

The Student Conduct Board is a hearing body composed of faculty, staff, and students who serve as members of the hearing board to determine the appropriate resolutions of alleged violations of the Code of Student Conduct, and/or to impose sanctions or affect other remedies as appropriate. Members of the Student Conduct Board will work to provide learning experiences for those who participate in the student conduct process and will foster ethical development and personal accountability in our students.

Requirements:

1. Be able to attend and actively participate in initial and ongoing training sessions
2. Maintain confidentiality in regard to all information discussed in conduct hearings
3. Be a clear communicator and open to new ideas and perspectives
4. Approval from your supervisor/department chair to be a part of the Community Standards Board
