The College reserves the right to take any necessary and appropriate steps to protect the safety and well-being of the College community. The College may independently proceed with the student conduct process while criminal/civil proceedings are in progress. In addition, the College will not be influenced based upon the grounds that criminal charges connected with the same incident are pending, have been dismissed, reduced, resolved in favor of or against the criminal law defendant, or withdrawn.

Each student shall be responsible for their conduct from the time they apply for admission through the actual awarding of a degree. ### Article VII: Student Code of Conduct Procedures

Any member of the College community may submit a report regarding inappropriate or concerning student behavior. An account of the behavior or incident shall be prepared in writing and submitted through the electronic Incident Reporting Form via the Owens web-site. Reports may be submitted at any time after an incident has occurred but should be submitted as soon as possible after the event takes place, preferably within 24 hours of occurrence.

Students who are registered with the Disability Resource Center are entitled to reasonable accommodations for all stages of the student conduct process. If possible, requests for accommodations should be made to the Student Conduct Administrator at the beginning of the process.

\* For student Code of Conduct Procedures related to Title IX allegations, please refer to Sections (M), (N), (O), and (P) of the College's Title IX/Sexual Misconduct Procedures and Guidelines.*

Procedures:

1. Once a report has been received, a prompt, fair, and impartial investigation will take place to determine if a policy violation(s) of the Student Code of Conduct has allegedly occurred. All investigations will be conducted and/or coordinated by the Student Conduct Administrator. Investigations may involve reviewing the respondents prior conduct history, interviewing witness(es), interviewing the complainant, interviewing the respondent, and/or requesting more information from the complainant, respondent, and/or witness(es).
2. If it has been determined that a policy violation may have occurred, the Student Conduct Administrator will present the alleged violations of the Student Code of Conduct to the respondent in written form (Owens email account and/or permanent address on file) and/or by phone and include a time for a meeting with the Student Conduct Administrator or notification to schedule a meeting to discuss the Incident

Report. All requests for meetings must be responded to within 24 hours of receipt of the written notification.

3. If a respondent, with notice, does not appear to a scheduled meeting and/or does not respond to the request for a meeting, the information in support of charges shall be presented and/or considered even if the respondent is not present or a Disciplinary Hold may be placed on the student's account until the student conduct process is complete.
4. Upon resolution, the Student Conduct Administrator will present the alleged policy violation determination and sanction(s) (if applicable) to the respondent in writing.

Informal Mutual Resolution:

Allegations of violations of the Student Code of Conduct may be resolved informally by mutual consent on a basis that is determined acceptable by the Student Conduct Administrator. During this resolution process, the respondent and the Student Conduct Administrator will discuss and agree upon the violations and sanction(s) (if applicable). The resolution shall be final and there shall be no subsequent proceedings (including appeals).

Student Conduct Board Hearing:

If the respondent has an existing student conduct record, a resolution could not be reached between the respondent and the Student Conduct Administrator, the alleged violation(s) are serious in nature, or the violation(s) involve allegations of the College's Title IX/Sexual Misconduct Procedures, a student conduct board hearing may occur in place of an informal mutual resolution. The Student Conduct Board is comprised of College officials from various offices/departments.

1. A student conduct board hearing will occur within fifteen (15) business days after the student has been notified in writing of the hearing.
2. Maximum time limits for scheduling of student conduct board hearings may be extended at the discretion of the Student Conduct Administrator.
3. Student conduct board hearings shall be conducted according to the following guidelines:
  - a. If a respondent fails to appear for a scheduled conduct hearing, the hearing will move forward and a sanction imposed (if applicable). The Student Conduct Board will consider the facts presented when making their decision. The student's absence will not be a factor in the determination. The Student Conduct Board Chair will notify the student of the decision in writing. In cases where credibility is an issue, such as when it is one party's word versus the other's with no other evidentiary information, if the complainant and/or witness(es) fail to appear, their statements/testimony will not be used and/or the hearing process may be postponed or ended.

- b. Student conduct board hearings shall be conducted in private.
- c. The complainant and the respondent have the right to be assisted by an advisor of their choosing. The advisor may be a member of the College community or external to the College community. The complainant and/or the respondent is responsible for presenting their own information and, therefore, advisors are not permitted to speak or to participate directly in any student conduct hearing. Advisors may not serve as witnesses.
- d. The respondent and their advisor, if any, shall be allowed to attend the entire portion of the student conduct board hearing during which information is presented (excluding deliberations). Admission of any other person(s) to the student conduct board hearing shall be at the discretion of the Hearing Board Chair.
- e. The respondent, the complainant (if applicable), and the Student Conduct Administrator may arrange for witnesses to present pertinent information to the student conduct board. If reasonably possible, the College will attempt to arrange the attendance of possible witnesses who are members of the College community and who are identified by the complainant and/or respondent at least two business days prior to the student conduct board hearing. Witnesses will provide information to and answer questions from the student conduct board. Questions for witnesses may be suggested by the respondent and/or complainant to the Hearing Board Chair, rather than to the witness(es) directly. The Hearing Board Chair will then pose the questions to witnesses if deemed appropriate.

NOTE: This method is used to preserve the educational tone of the hearing and to avoid creation of an adversarial environment.

- Pertinent records, exhibits, and written statements may be accepted as information for consideration by the student conduct board at the discretion of the Hearing Board Chair
  - All procedural questions are subject to the final decision of the Hearing Board Chair.
  - Formal rules of process or procedure, and/or technical rules of evidence, such as are applied in criminal or civil court, are not used in Student Code of Conduct proceedings.
- f. After the portion of the student conduct board hearing concludes in which all pertinent information has been presented, the student conduct board shall determine (by majority vote) whether the respondent is responsible for each violation of the Student Code of Conduct for which they have been charged. The student conduct board's determination shall be made on the basis of whether it is more likely than not (i.e., preponderance of evidence) the respondent violated the Student Code of Conduct.

- g. If the student conduct board determines that the respondent has violated the Student Code of Conduct, it will recommend sanctions to the Student Conduct Administrator.
4. There shall be a single verbatim record, such as an audio recording, of all student conduct board hearings (not including deliberations).
The record shall be the property of the College. No other recording devices shall be permitted.
  5. During the hearing, the student conduct board may accommodate concerns for the personal safety or well-being, and/or fears of confrontation of the complainant, respondent, and/or witnesses by providing separate facilities, by using a visual screen, and/or by permitting participation via videophone, closed circuit television, video conferencing, or other visual synchronous means, as determined appropriate in the sole judgment of the Student Conduct Administrator.

To be eligible for re-admission, all sanctions and conditions related to the suspension must be completed. After the written request is received, a committee will review the request and meet with the student. As a condition of re-admission, a re-admission plan may be made. The student will be notified of the decision in writing.
  - h. College Expulsion – Permanent separation of the student from the College.
  - i. Revocation of Admission and/or Degree – Admission to or a degree awarded from the College may be revoked for fraud, misrepresentation, or other violations of College standards in obtaining the degree, or for other serious violations committed by a student prior to graduation.

For information regarding appeals related Title IX findings, please refer to section (T) of the College’s Title IX/Sexual Misconduct Procedures and Guidelines.

2. The appeal must be made, in writing, to the appeal body, through the Office of Student Life, within seven (7) business days of the announcement of findings/sanctions and specifically describe the grounds on which the appeal is being sought.
3. An appeal may be sought on the following grounds:
  - On a claim of error in the hearing procedure that substantially affected the decision;
  - On a claim of new evidence or information material to the case that was not known at the time of the hearing and which reasonably could have affected the decision of the hearing body.
4. Except as required to explain the basis of new information, an appeal shall be limited to a review of the verbatim record of the student conduct procedure and supporting documents for one or more of the following purposes:
  - a. To determine whether the student conduct procedure was conducted fairly in light of the charges and information presented, and in conformity with prescribed procedures giving the complainant a reasonable opportunity to prepare and to present information that the Student Code of Conduct was violated, and giving the respondent a reasonable opportunity to prepare and to present a response to those allegations. Deviations from designated procedures will not be a basis for sustaining an appeal unless significant prejudice results.
  - b. To consider new information, sufficient to alter a decision or other relevant facts not brought out in the original procedure, because such information and/or facts were not known to the student appealing at the time of the original student conduct proceeding.
5. The appeal body has the authority to dismiss an appeal not sought on proper grounds. If the appeal body determines that the asserted grounds for appeal are valid, the appeal body may uphold or dismiss the sanctions
6. The decision of the appeal body is final and binding upon all involved.
7. Informal mutual resolutions reached between the Student Conduct Administrator and the involved party(s) may not be appealed.
