

2019-2020 Dependent Student Special Conditions Application OFFICE OF FINANCIAL AID

Financial aid for the 2019-2020 academic year is based on 2017 income. If you and/or your family have had a significant change in your financial situation during 2019, complete this form to request a re-evaluation of your eligibility for financial aid for the 2019-2020 academic year. This review will be based upon the information you provide through a process called Special Conditions. Circumstances which may result in the adjustment of your family contribution include:

- Loss of untaxed income or benefits in 2019 that was reported on the FAFSA application – for example, child support or worker’s compensation.
- Loss of one-time income received during 2017 which was included in adjusted gross income on the 2017 federal income tax return – for example, taxable Social Security, IRA or 401(k) withdrawals, capital gains or moving allowances.
- Loss of earnings in 2019 due to a loss of job, change of job, reduction in pay, disability, natural disaster or retirement. No adjustments will be made due to changes in overtime compensation.
- Loss of taxed income such as alimony.
- Financial support for elderly relatives – for example, nursing home costs.
- Payment of medical and dental expenses not covered by health insurance or pre-tax plans (such as a Flexible Spending Account), but paid by the student or parent(s) in 2018 or 2019. Expenses must have already been incurred and paid, not just owed. Certain limits apply.
- Death of a parent after the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) is filed.
- The parent of a dependent student is attending college at least half-time.

If you and your family meet one of the criteria listed above, or if you feel that you have another extenuating circumstance that we should consider, explain the situation on the back of this form and return it to Oserve along with the required documentation. Additional documentation could be requested. It is important for you to turn in all requested documentation pertaining to your situation(s) as outlined in the boxes on this form.

If you have any questions, please contact Oserve at (567) 661-7378 or 1-800-GO-OWENS, ext. 7378.
