The Economic Value of Owens Community College Findlay Campus

JANUARY 2016

Owens Community College Findlay Campus (Findlay Campus) creates a significant positive impact on the business community and generates a return on investment to its major stakeholder groups—students, taxpayers, and society. Using a two-pronged approach that involves an economic impact analysis and an investment analysis, this study calculates the benefits to each of these groups. Results of the analysis reflect Fiscal Year (FY) 2013-14.

IMPACT ON BUSINESS COMMUNITY

During the analysis year, Findlay Campus and its students added $77.7 MILLION in added income to the Hancock County economy, approximately equal to 1.8% of the county's total GRP. By comparison, this impact from the campus is twice as large as the county's entire Agriculture, Forestry, Fishing, & Hunting industry. The economic impacts of Findlay Campus break down as follows:

Operations spending impact

- Findlay Campus employed 200 full-time and part-time employees in FY 2013-14. Payroll amounted to $9.5 MILLION, much of which was spent in Hancock County to purchase groceries, clothing, and other household goods and services. The campus spent another $3.4 MILLION to support its day-to-day operations.
- The net impact of campus payroll and expenses in Hancock County during the analysis year was approximately $10.1 MILLION in added income.

Impact of student spending

- A number of students would have left the county if not for Findlay Campus. These retained students spent money on groceries, transportation, rent, and so on at county businesses.
- The expenditures of retained students during the analysis year added approximately $213.4 THOUSAND in added income to the Hancock County economy.

Alumni impact

- Over the years, students have studied at Findlay Campus and entered or re-entered the workforce with newly-acquired skills. Today, thousands of these former students are employed in Hancock County.
- The accumulated contribution of former students currently employed in the county workforce amounted to $67.4 MILLION in added income during the analysis year.

RETURN ON INVESTMENT TO STUDENTS, TAXPAYERS, AND SOCIETY

Student perspective

- Findlay Campus's FY 2013-14 students paid a total of $5.9 MILLION to cover the cost of tuition, fees, and supplies. They also forwent $21.8 MILLION in money that they would have earned had they been working instead of learning.
- In return for the monies invested in the campus, students will receive a present value of $101 MILLION in increased earnings over their working lives. This translates to a return of $3.70 in higher future earnings for every $1 that students invest in their education. The average annual return for students is 14.5%.

Taxpayer perspective

- In FY 2013-14, state taxpayers in Ohio paid $5.7 MILLION to support the operations of Findlay Campus. The net present value of the added tax revenue stemming from the students' higher lifetime earnings and the increased output of businesses amounts to $26.6 MILLION in benefits to taxpayers. Savings to the public sector add another $1.8 MILLION in benefits due to a reduced demand for government-funded services in Ohio.
- Dividing benefits to taxpayers by the associated costs yields a 5.0 benefit-cost ratio, i.e., every $1 in costs returns $5.00 in benefits. The average annual return on investment for taxpayers is 13.7%.

Social perspective

- The economic base in Ohio will grow by $365.5 MILLION over the course of the students' working lives. Society will also benefit from $7.8 MILLION in present value social savings related to reduced crime, lower unemployment, and increased health and well-being across the state.
- For every dollar that society spent on Findlay Campus educations during the analysis year, society will receive a cumulative value of $10.00 in benefits, for as long as the FY 2013-14 student population at Findlay Campus remains active in the state workforce.
